

LACDR Spring Symposium 5 April 2004
Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam,
De Boelelaan 1055, Amsterdam

09.00 h Preparation posters by the PhD-students
09.30 h Introduction by Prof.dr. Rob Leurs, Director of Research

09.45 h Prof.dr. Jarl Wikberg, ULLA Lecturer, Department of Pharmaceutical Biosciences, Sweden, Title: Proteochemometrics – a bioinformatics approach to the study of molecular recognition

10.30 h coffee/tea break

11.00-11.15 h Maroesja van Nimwegen, Division of Toxicology
11.15-11.30 h Martyn Bruysters, Division of Medicinal Chemistry (A)
11.30-11.45 h Dymphy Huntjens, Division of Pharmacology
11.45-12.00 h Arnaud Hauer, Division of Biopharmaceutics

12.00 h poster presentation of all LACDR AIO's and lunch buffet

14.00-14.15 h Peter Keizers, Division of Molecular Toxicology
Miranda de Jager, Division of Drug Delivery Technology
14.30-14.45 h Ivan Utama, Division of Analytical Biosciences

14.15-14.30 h

14.45-15.00 h coffee/tea break

15.00-15.15 h Lisa Chang, Division of Medicinal Chemistry (L)
15.15-15.30 h Hans Krabbe, Division of Biomolecular Sciences

15.30-15.50 h Dr Holger Huisman/Dr Inez van der Sandt, Suzanne Hovinga Award
15.50-16.10 h Prof.dr. Henk Timmerman, Taeke Bultsma Award

16.10-16.30 h coffee/tea break

16.30 h Dr.ir. Ton Rijnders, Vice President Research, NV Organon, The Netherlands
Title: Drug Discovery at Organon: Scientific Business

17.15 h presentation of the winner of the AIO competition and presentation of the Progress Report 2003 by Prof.dr. Gerard J. Mulder, Director of Research

17.30 h closing and reception

Voting procedure AIO competition:

- On entering the lecture hall you will receive a ballot paper. The ballot paper will be handed out at the beginning of the aio-competition only.
- This form has to be filled in immediately after the final lecture
- All forms will be collected upon leaving the lecture hall
- ☞ Note: points have to be given to all candidates. Incomplete forms will be invalid.
- ☞ You can only vote when you attend the symposium for the whole day